Vellacott stands with Kilgour and Matas who were appointed to lead organ harvesting investigation

For Immediate Release

May 11, 2006

The Hon. David Kilgour, J.D., former Secretary of State (Asia Pacific), and Mr. David Matas, renowned international human rights lawyer, will lead an investigation into the organ harvesting and murder of Falun Gong prisoners in China, at the request of the Falun Dafa Association of Canada.

Mr. Kilgour and Mr. Matas held a press conference on Parliament Hill at the Charles Lynch press room Monday, May 8 to kick off the investigation. Conservative Members of Parliament Rahim Jaffer and Maurice Vellacott joined the presenters at the microphone to demonstrate their support.
