Saskatoon MP Maurice Vellacott welcomes membership on Human Resources and Skills Development Committee

For Immediate Release

November 27, 2008

OTTAWA – Conservative MP Maurice Vellacott (Saskatoon-Wanuskewin) was appointed today to sit on the Parliamentary Standing Committee for Human Resources and Skills Development.

“I am pleased with this appointment, as I enjoy working on the files within this department,” said Vellacott. “The issues and legislation that will be considered by this committee, directly affect the everyday lives of my constituents and most Canadian citizens.”

These include such well-known programs as Employment Insurance, CPP and Canada Student Loans as well as many other programs.

“I look forward to influencing these matters that are so vital to the well-being of ordinary Canadians,” said Vellacott.
