Vellacott applauds Conservative Government decision to appeal prostitution decision

For Immediate Release

September 29, 2010

OTTAWA – Yesterday, the Ontario Superior Court ruled on the Bedford Prostitution Challenge.

Maurice Vellacott, MP for Saskatoon-Wanuskewin said, “I am very concerned by this decision.”

Vellacott vowed, “Our Government will fight to ensure that the Criminal Code continues to address the significant societal harms that result from prostitution to both communities and the women themselves.”

Vellacott believes it is absolutely the right course of action to appeal the Ontario Superior Court ruling and seek a stay of that Judge's decision.
